

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

RULES OF ORDER.

As Adopted in 1869. Modified in 1875, and Adopted Each, and this, Session Since.

1. The Conference shall meet at 8½ o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 M., but may alter the time of meeting and adjourning at its discretion.
 2. The President shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned, and cause the same to be opened by reading the Scriptures, singing and prayer, and shall have the journals of the preceding day read and approved.
 3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.
 4. He shall appoint all committees not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one committee at the same time.
 5. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member of the Conference requests it.
 6. When a motion, resolution or report presented, is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, at any time before action or amendment.
 7. No new motion or resolution shall be made before the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motion shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, viz: Indefinite postponement, lying on the table, reference to a committee, postponement to any given time, or amendment.
 8. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question, uses personalities, or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.
 9. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.
 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, or more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
 11. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side, to move a reconsideration.
 12. No member shall absent himself from the services of Conference without leave unless he is sick or unable to attend.
 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.
 14. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put, shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuse him.
 15. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.
 16. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Conference, and, when approved, shall record them in a book provided for that purpose. He shall take charge of the journal and other papers of the Conference; and preserve them with care; suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of Conference, except with the consent of the Conference; and shall forward the journal and papers to the next Annual Conference.
 17. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.
 18. No preacher shall bring any charge against any member of this Conference until he has first given him information of the same, either by letter or otherwise, ten days in advance, if practicable, so that the accused may have an opportunity for defense.
 19. When any brother intends to object to the passage of another's character, it shall be his duty to hand the name of the person against whom objections are to be made to the President of the Conference.
- [The Conference, Sept. 8, 1873, ordered the previous question on a pending motion, thus establishing a precedent.
- [A motion to table an amendment to a resolution does not carry the resolution to the table. This has itself been the understanding in Detroit Conference.—Secretary Edwards.

BOUNDARIES AND WORK IN NORTHERN MICHIGAN.

It needs no protracted study to be convinced that the northern portion of our State, especially of the Lower Peninsular, offers to the christian people of Michigan and particularly to our own denomination a question of the gravest moment. We believe that no subject will occupy the attention of your body at its present session so fraught with interests to Christ's kingdom in this State, at the same time so vitally related to the prosperity of our own cause as this. It is seldom in the history of civilization that so large a region of country is so suddenly rescued from the solitudes of primeval forests and opened to the pursuits of civilized life as is now being witnessed in the northern half of lower Michigan. It is scarcely more than a decade of years since that vast region lying north of a line west from the Saginaws, was, with the exception of a few towns on its eastern and western coasts, an almost unbroken wilderness. To-day tens of thousands of families are erecting their home and clearing their farms all through that extent of country from Lake Huron, nearly two hundred miles to Lake Michigan, from the Saginaws nearly two hundred miles to the Straits. This population has not moved on gradually league by league from any one point of the compass, to be followed or attended in its march by the teacher and the preacher, but it came up into all parts of the wilderness with a surprising simultaneousness. The offer of our government of a free home to every family who will settle upon their rich farming lands is drawing a numerous people thither. And the tide of immigration has but just commenced to this region. It is to be doubled and quadrupled in the few years before us. As a matter of course a large proportion of the families settling there are of moderate means. Indeed they are generally poor, but industrious. It is noticeable also that a very large proportion of them have gone there from the older portions of our own State, and thus social ties as well as Christian, are created between them and us. Perhaps we need not remind your body of the painful fact that hitherto we have failed almost utterly to meet the wants of this rapidly increasing population. There are already many large neighborhoods, even villages having hundreds of souls, in which there is no religious worship whatever. In several growing towns, some of which are county seats where our societies have been organized, owing to the great distance of their Presiding Elders from them, and the inexperience of their preachers, and in many cases the absence of any preacher at all they have disbanded, or have gone over to some other denomination who would furnish to them the needed missionary help. While we are gratified at the christian zeal manifested by any of our sister churches, and from our hearts bid them God speed, yet we must think that greater zeal on our part and a more vigorous working of our forces would enable us not only to hold the ground God has given us, but to take the ground he would have us occupy. Within the near future, probably within a twelve month great changes will be wrought in the northern part of our State by new Railroad enterprises. If, as now seems probable the Marquette and Mackinaw Road shall be built, and the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Road shall be extended to the Straits of Mackinaw to connect with it, no one, it seems to us, can fail to see the importance of our immediately marching up to the occupancy of that land. We believe the time has fully come for a more thoroughly organized movement in this direction. We believe our laymen and friends in this State are ready to co-operate. Strong financial and commercial bonds unite Northern and Southern Michigan. Many of our most liberal people are anxious for greater development of our Home Work. We wish to call attention particularly to one fact. At present the meridian line of our State divides the two Conferences. The two railroads running towards the Straits of Mackinaw and the Upper Peninsular will both lie in the territory of the Michigan Conference; hence to reach the northern part of our work we must pass through more than one hundred miles of their territory. A little change in the northern part of our dividing line, by carrying it a few miles to the west would give us one of these railroad lines. The territory through which this road passes can be reached by us much more easily than by them. Indeed the difficulty they have experienced in crossing the country from one road to the other will account largely for the decline of our cause along the line of the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw railroad. In view therefore of the whole subject we recommend the adoption of the following :

Resolved, 1. That we hereby memorialize the next General Conference in favor of defining the boundaries of the Detroit Conference as follows: The Detroit Conference shall include that part of the State of Michigan east of the principal meridian as far north as the southern side of Roscommon county, thence west to the southwest corner of said county, thence directly north to the Straits of Mackinaw. It shall also include the Upper Peninsular. 2. That we notify the Michigan Conference now in session in Ionia of this action and respectfully ask them to co-operate in the same. 3. Your committee further recommend that the portion of the Lower Peninsular embraced in the Detroit Conference and north of a line extending from the east to west at the base of the counties of Iosco and Ogemaw, be organized into a new District to be called the Alpena District, and that in case the Michigan Conference shall cede to us the territory on the Line of the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad from the west line of Roscommon county to the Straits of Mackinaw, the said acquired territory shall be embraced in this district. 4. That the Presiding Elder of this new district be authorized to solicit aid in the Conference at large, demanded for the prosecution of the work in said district.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

The Fourth Commandment of the Decalogue, reads thus: Remember the Sabbath day to keep it Holy; Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God, in it thou shalt not do any work, Thou, nor thy son nor thy daughters, thy man servant nor thy maid servant, nor thy cattle, nor the stranger that is within thy gates, Ex. xx. 10-11.

In the preceding and following sections of the Law, Gods says to man, Thou shalt not; In the fourth, The word remember is used, As if the duty enjoined, was one; That mankind were prone to forget, Hence, The frequency of the spirit's call to sanctify the Sabbaths and reverence the Sanctuary. To-morrow is the rest of the Holy Sabbath, let no man go out of his place to gather manna. Thus saith the Lord, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, neither do ye any work but hallow ye the Sabbath day. as I commanded your fathers, Jer. xvii, 21-22. And they returned and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the Sabbath day according to the commandment. Luke xxiii. 56. Here the command as given in the Old Testament, is acknowledged and observed under the New Testament. Immediately after the crucifixion of Him who declared himself Lord of the Sabbath. The Sabbath was made for man as necessary to the health of his physical, intellectual, and moral nature. If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable ; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words : Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord, and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob, Isaiah lviii. 13-14.

Nehemiah rebuked the Jews, and men of Tyre^f for Sunday traffick, closed the gates of the city, and threatened to arrest all who lingered outside the walls for the purposes of trade, and compelled them to leave. Plainly teaching the people that much of the evil they had suffered, and wrath that had been visited upon them was due to Sabbath desecration. Suffice us now to call attention to the laws of the State of Michigan on the importance of the Christian Sabbath, as Lord's Day. See Chapter 55, Sec. 1, Compiled Laws, 1871. No person shall keep open his shop, warehouse, or work-house, or shall do any manner of labor, business, or work, except only works of necessity and charity, or be present at any dancing, or public diversion, show or entertainment, or take part in any sport, game, at any or play, on the first day of the week ; and every person so offending, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offence. This statute we believe, to be, in strict harmony with the word of God as it regards the Lord's day. A cheerful and willing obedience to the laws of the State is the test of good citizenship. No man can justly lay claim to such character, who knowingly and willfully tramples under foot the laws of the State. Much less can the man, or woman lay claim to the character of christians who knowingly, openly and wilfully transgresses the laws of God. Obedience to the law is the test of Discipleship. "If ye^e love me keep my commandments."

"If ye keep my commandments ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love."

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill ; Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. And he that said, Do not kill, said also, Remember the Sabbath day to keep it Holy. Now if thou commit no murder, yet if thou dost not keep the Sabbath Holy, thou art become a transgressor of the law. All Sabbath excursions, by boat or rail, loading and unloading vessels, repairing machinery in mills, working in warehouses, in shops, in the fields, being present in beer gardens, or at dancing parties, driving for pleasure or recreation, or doing ordinary work on the Lord's day are open violations of both the laws of God, and the State. And, when ministers of the Gospel, and professedly christian men and women, patronize Sabbath breaking excursions, and merchants, who are members of our churches leave their homes, and church work on the Sabbath to go by boat or rail to the city to purchase goods, let us bow low, and in deep humiliation before God, cry out in the language of the Psalmist, "Help Lord for the godly man ceaseth, For the faithful fail from among the children of men." Your committee would therefore earnestly impress upon the members of our church to cease from all ordinary work, and travel for business or pleasure on the Lord's day, and spend the entire day in public, and private exercises of God's worship, except so much as may be taken up by works of necessity, or mercy.

WHEREAS, We believe the sin of Sabbath breaking, to be alarmingly on the increase, and that judgment must begin at the Sanctuary, Therefore Resolved, 1st. That all Sabbath breaking, all traffick in cigars, tobacco, and common merchandise, at camp meetings; held on or over the Sabbath; and all excursions to and from camp on the Lord's day—are descretions of the day, demoralizing in their influence. These call anew, for a Savior with his scourge to drive out the buyers and sellers, overset the tables of the money changers and the seats of the sellers of wares. That the Lord's House, whether in Temple or Grove, may be indeed, and in truth a place of prayer.

Resolved, That as a Conference, we will not give occasion, or open the way for Sabbath desecration by holding camp meetings over the Sabbath with open gates.

WM. DONNELLY, Chairman.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Believing the Bible to be a revelation of God to man, and of man to himself, we receive it as the all sufficient rule of life and faith. That it contains all that is necessary to make one wise unto salvation, no one who has studied its sacred pages, and experienced its precious truths, will doubt. We are not unmindful however that there are those, even in this favored land where it has done such mighty work, who would, were it possible, close it from the sight of the masses. Be it therefore

Resolved, that we extend to the American Bible Society, our warmest sympathies, and pledge it financial support so far as practicable.

C. T. ALLEN, Ch'n.

MISSION AUDITORS.

The Mission Auditing Committee have to report that, on careful examination, they find every dollar appropriated within the bounds of the Conference, for the year just closed, to be fully and properly vouched for.

T. J. JOSLIN, Ch'n.

EDUCATION.

It is the inalienable right of every human being to obtain all the education that the resources of the age in which he lives and his own desires and capabilities make possible. It is at the same time the imperative duty of society to do everything in its power to quicken and gratify such desires and to stimulate and equip such capabilities in the highest degree of usefulness. These two principles lie at the basis of the whole subject of education.

The order and prosperity of both the State and the Church will be in proportion to the extent in which real, comprehensive and thorough education prevails. But education, to be real must develope and discipline the faculties of the mind as well as store it with knowledge. To be comprehensive it must secure this development and discipline, not alone for one or many of the human faculties, but for the whole of them; to be thorough, it is required that this development and discipline be complete, as regards the individual faculty, harmonious as regards all of them taken together, and practical as regards the great matters of life and destiny.

The State and the Church have, each its own part to act in bringing such an education within reach of the people. The State should provide literary, scientific and technical training for its people according to their capabilities and according to the demands of time and circumstances. To the Church belongs the duty of superadding to this secular training that moral and religious culture which man's spiritual nature demands.

It is matter for unfeigned rejoicing therefore, that with us both Church and State are endeavoring to measure up to their responsibilities in this respect. Our system of free education, ranging from the simplest elementary instruction to the most complete University training, is a noble monument of enlightened patriotism, and deserves, as it receives, the hearty support of a united people. Our denominational colleges are similar monuments of enlightened churchism and deserve our universal support. Among these Colleges is our own at Albion.

The report of its Trustees for the year just closed records encouraging progress in nearly all departments of the institution. We hope this will go on from year to year until such a degree of efficiency and excellency is attained as will rank Albion with the best and most useful colleges in the land.

We make the following recommendations :

1.—The employment by the Board of Trustees of a suitably qualified lady professor, as essential to the completeness of the faculty of an institution where young ladies form so large a proportion of the whole number of students.

2.—The enforcement by the faculty of discreet and firm discipline over all students so as to make the college in this respect an institution in which our best people will delight to place their sons and daughters.

3.—The modification of curriculum so as to give greater prominence to technical studies and thus make the culture obtained thoroughly available in the practical affairs of life.

4.—The re-election of David Preston and Otis A. Critchett as Trustees for the next term, also of Thomas Stather, A. B. Wood and F. Bradley as visitors for the ensuing year.

The financial exhibit for the past year is as follows :

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your committee is happy to report an increasing interest on the part of the church in Sabbath school and bible study. The Sunday school is becoming more and more, a great power for good in the church and among the people. Through the agency of the S. S. a deeper interest has been awakened in Bible study, both among the old and young. The S. S. is better officered than ever before. Better teachers are engaged in explaining Bible truths. Better literature is now furnished to our scholars. Its papers, its songs, its music, its books are of a higher and more elevating character than heretofore. The S. S. is, in short, the great battle ground of the Church to-day. In Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church alone nearly 100,000 conversions occur every year—grand, immortal trophies of grace for the Great Teacher above. Your committee, therefore, earnestly recommend that all our preachers in charge of circuits so arrange their various appointments, as to be present, if possible, at all the sessions of all the Sunday Schools within the bounds of their circuits. That great care be exercised in the selection and appointment of teachers; that the school be held at such an hour as shall accommodate the greatest number of persons; that the disciplinary provision providing for the establishing and maintaining of Sunday Schools be faithfully carried out; that as preachers in charge we most earnestly urge, and insist that the children of our Sunday Schools attend the public ministry of the Word, enlisting parents and teachers to aid in securing this most desirable end; that in all cases preference be given to the helps and periodicals published by our own Church, to the exclusion of outside publications; that more attention be given to Normal and Institute; that more of our teachers be urged to avail themselves of the excellent advantages of S. S. Congresses and Assemblies held for the purpose of aiding Bible teachers and students and Christian workers; that we as pastors give more attention to the circulation of tracts and thus more effectually utilize this instrumentality provided by our Church authority. We also recommend the forming of Saturday afternoon classes of children and youth in which the pastor shall teach the essential doctrines of the Bible and Methodism, and the great facts in and concerning the Scriptures.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Church Extension Society, organized by the General Conference of the M. E. Church, aims to meet a most important demand in the Church, namely to help feeble societies where the people are unable to build for themselves cheap and commodious churches. This is done sometimes by donations and sometimes by loans. We are deeply convinced that the felt want for help is not only in the South but also in the North and in our own Conference; there are many places calling for help, and if all our people could see the importance of liberal sowing in this field, the church would soon reap a great and glorious harvest. Therefore Resolved, That the Church Extension Society is entitled to and shall receive our most cordial and earnest co-operation.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance do offer the following resolutions as their report.

Resolved, 1st. That we heartily endorse the temperance resolutions of the General Conference of 1876, as found in Discipline page 375, edition of 1876, and will read them once a year in all our congregations.

Resolved, 2d. That we heartily endorse the action of the State Convention of the ribbon clubs of Michigan, looking to the submission to a vote of the people, of an amendment to the State Constitution, forever prohibiting the manufacture and sale of Alcoholic liquors, except for medicinal and art uses and that we will use our influences in favor of the same.

Resolved, 3d. That we believe the manufacture and sale of intoxicants to be used as a beverage, to be a crime, as great as theft, or forgery, and that the offender should be punished the same as the theft or forger.

Resolved, 4th. That we endorse the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and all God-fearing Temperance Societies, Literature and Lectures, as helpers in the war against King Alcohol.

On tobacco, your committee offer the following: That we earnestly recommend all members of this Conference who use tobacco to cease from its use:

That we heartily endorse the resolutions adopted by the last General Conference, advising all our ministers and members to abstain from the use of tobacco as injurious to both soul and body, and recommending to the annual Conferences to require candidates for admission to be free from the habit as hurtful to their acceptability and usefulness among our people.

MEMOIRS.

William Mahon was born in Ireland (date unknown), converted in early life, and licensed to preach among the Wesleyans of that country. Came to America about 1845, and united with the Michigan Conference in 1850. Was subsequently stationed at Marshall, Lansing, Detroit, Flint, Pontiac, Romeo and Utica; and was granted a superannuated relation in 1870. Depressing infirmities greatly obscured the latter years of his life; but God released the imprisoned spirit and no doubt honored his servant with a heavenly mansion, on the 24th day of May last. As a man he possessed many endearing qualities, and was a preacher of good accomplishments. He was twice married, and leaves a widow, son and daughter, to claim our sympathies, and to receive, we trust, the protections of a merciful providence.

Robert Triggs, died at Ripon, Wis., Jan. 8th, 1879. He was born in England, Aug. 9th, 1792; converted and joined the Wesleyan Church, in 1814, and was soon after licensed to preach. Came to the United States in 1832, and joined the Ohio Conference in 1834; was ordained deacon by Bishop Soule, in 1836, and ordained Elder by Bishop Waugh, in 1838. He fell into the Michigan Conference by division of territory, and subsequently into this Conference in the same way. He continued in active service until 1846 when he was placed upon the superannuated list. Father Triggs was "a good man, full of faith and the Holy Ghost." Almost his last words were, "I am calmly trusting in Jesus."

Mrs. Elizabeth Spence Fiske, was born in Scotland, July 19th, 1827: Her father, Dr. A. Spence, came to America and settled in Michigan, in 1833. She was converted and united with the Presbyterian Church when only eleven years of age. In 1852, she was united in marriage with Rev. L. R. Fiske, D.D. Soon after her marriage she united with the M. E. Church, of which she remained a most devoted, consistent and active member to the end of life. Her death occurred at Albion, February 25th, 1879. Many, upon the pastoral charges occupied by her husband, can testify to her ardent devotion and fidelity to the Redeemer's cause. Her life was adorned with the ornament of a "meek and quiet spirit."

Mrs. Kate Stalker, was born of methodist parents, in Yorkshire, England, April 17th, 1831. She gave evidence of intelligent piety in very early childhood, and united with the Wesleyan Church at the age of fourteen years. April 16th, 1855, she was united in marriage with Rev. Thomas Stalker whom she greatly aided in the work of the divine Master until called to her reward in heaven. In all her relations of wife, mother, church member, and friend, the christian virtues shone in harmony and beauty to adorn a devout and faithful life. She died at Pontiac, April 22th, 1879, in joyful hope of eternal life.

"These all died in the faith!"

FREEDMEN'S CAUSE.

The emancipation of more than 3,000,000 of slaves during the war of the rebellion, threw upon the nation and the Church a most fearful responsibility. Long ages of heathenism in their native Africa, and centuries of abject slavery in this country, had thoroughly degraded and debased the slave race, until there was left to the Freedmen, wrenched from debased and corrupt masters, scarcely the bases of intelligence and moral principle on which to rear the super-structure of a virtuous manhood. The government did a noble work through the Freedmen's Bureau for a time. But that work was almost wholly secular, leaving that which his most essential, in a preparation for true citizenship, the moral and religious culture of the Freedmen, to the Church. And as the moral sense of the Church at the South had been blunted by the practice and defense of slavery, until it was thoroughly disqualified for such a noble and God-like work, the responsibility of caring for these poor down trodden people has devolved almost entirely upon the Church at the North. The Methodist Episcopal Church has not been recreant to this great interest of humanity, but was early in the field with her forces organized for effective work. The Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society, has his eye on the field as it opens and enlarges, and is cultivating it to the fullest extent of the means placed at his disposal by the benevolence of the Church. The whole South is now open to the operations of this Society as it has never been before, and all that is needed is more money, with which to establish and maintain schools, to give us the whole land. Though the collections of the Church are numerous it is hoped that the cause of the Freedmen will receive its proper choice of attention both from the pastor and the people of all our charges.

THE PORT HURON CHURCH.

The Committee appointed to consider and report on the state of the Port Huron Church would respectfully represent: They find that Methodism commenced its work in Port Huron in 1830. The first church was completed in 1844. Prosperity demanded increased accommodations and the second church was completed in 1856. After this the city rapidly increased in population and the society grew in numbers and wealth. In 1871 the members felt it their duty to lay the foundations of Methodism in Port Huron deep and broad. A new Church was commenced and at a cost of $5,800.00 for parsonage and lots, and $32,000.00 for building, it was finished except its audience room, in 1875. The great financial crash found the Society $14,000 in debt and all the chief men found the financial strength swept away, and the death of one of the leading members still further crippled the Society. Heroic efforts were made to pay interest and carry the burden. It was too much and the Church was sold.

At this time Bro. Robert Blair, of Cambridge, N. Y., learning of the disaster to the Church, felt he could not rest, and taking $1,000.00 of his own money and borrowing $9,000.00 he came to Port Huron to help redeem the property. A plan was then adopted to raise $8,000.00 of the $15,000.00 then due and reduce the debt to $7,000. Bro. I. N. Elwood, P. E. and Bro. Wm. Fox, preacher in charge undertook the execution of the plan. At the Conference last year, the money had been partly pledged, and the property had been redeemed. Bro. Fox has been employed to act as agent of the Church the past year. Bro. Elwood acted in concert with him, and on the 11th of July the subscriptions had reached the sum of $8,000. The debt had thus been virtually reduced to about $6,000. On July 11th at ¼ past 11 o'clock, A. M., a tornado from the north and west struck the church, and in a moment it was in ruins. A subscription was made in Port Huron, July 20th, amounting to $1,447, and this has been increased to 2,200. Bros. Elwood and Fox have secured subscriptions outside Port Huron for $800. Material has been secured by donation of about $1,000. About $100 has been sent us for the Re-building Fund.

ACTION OF THE LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE.

On motion of T. C. Owen, the committee in the Port Huron church matter, consisting of Messrs. S. Howard, A. Williams and Orison Green were instructed to request the Annual Conference to have the ministers take up collections for the church on or before November ad, next.

PERIODICALS.

It is the opinion of this Conference that the action of the Book Committee, placing the Advocates in an attitude of fraternity and equality, was just and proper. This action has remedied the evils which did at one time exist, and placed the papers in their proper relations to each other. The question of the propriety of publishing local and independent papers seems to have been settled by the logic of facts and experience, at least in this State. We have our Conference papers, our district periodicals, and some printed organs of individual churches. We are thus endeavoring to utilize the press as a means of influence. However great has been the power of the press in the past, it has not yet reached its maximum, nor is it yet used in all possible avenues. Each grade of periodical has its constituency, its competitors, and each local paper its territorial patrons. Our large official organs must compete in size and price, in literary excellence and business enterprise, with others of their grade. That they may do this successfully they must have a large number of subscribers, must circulate over an extended field, and must have a paying subscription price. Other religious papers, smaller and cheaper, published by men not in sympathy with our church, some of them exerting no little influence in producing disaffection toward it, are offered to the people, and taken by many who could not be induced to take our more expensive connectional papers. To meet these we must have periodicals of our own as cheap as they. Then by the circulation of these cheap periodicals, many more persons are influenced through the press than would be without them. We may say that we do not wish them to interfere at all with the circulation of our own larger weeklies; but they do, to some extent, nevertheless; some take these that might be induced to take them if these were not in the field. But, however desirable it may be that our official periodicals have a large circulation and a liberal support, they are but means to an end. The purpose is the dissemination of religious truth; and this purpose is more extensively secured by the help of these local papers. Still there is need of caution in the application of this argument. We may by certain means secure greater immediate good, and yet do harm by obstructing the work or weakening the power of agencies which reach over a larger field, and which are to work on through the ages. The world is to be redeemed through the instrumentality of the church. Any individual interprise which weakens the power of the church, or of any of its means, must, unless it more than compensates the loss, result in injury to the cause of Christ. We hold, then, that fidelity to the church, an exaltation of its authorized and adopted agencies, a strict observance of its rules, and a careful maintenance of its principles and modes, are necessary to the greatest ultimate good. But as long as these independent papers are loyal, and devoted to the interests of the churches, the good resulting from the publication of those already in the field seems to outweigh the loss sustained by other periodicals, and their publication is justified. We have no criticisms or suggestions to offer in reference to the character and management of our periodicals. We have been pleased to see in them a disposition to maintain, rather than mend, doctrinal and ecclesiastical methodism, while admitting a free discussion of all proposed improvements. The Northwestern holds its own with unabated vigor and undiminished estimate among its patrons. The vote with which we have just elected him as one of our delegates to the General Conference is an endorsement of its editor. We approve of its vigorous defense of civil and religious liberty, and its fearless exposure of injustice and crime. Let the deeds of darkness be exposed. Pour upon the foul places the light of Christian civilization till men shall learn what liberty, justice, and righteousness means. We equally commend the Christian Advocate for this. The Michigan Advocate has secured a place in the hearts of the people. It is ably edited, well patronized, and it is doing good. We hope all our ministers will take the Methodist Quarterly Review. To our young preachers permit us to say, if you have not now a taste for the kind of reading it contains, the mind needs cultivation in that very direction. The popular demand is for light and superficial thought, but he who yields entirely to that demand consents to a deterioration of the race. We have not been largely successful in obtaining subscribers for the National Repository. It appears from the reports of the Book Committee that its circulation has diminished, instead of increased, since 1877, especially in the East; in 1877 there were 9,500, and in 1878 only 3,358 copies taken in the East. The loss in the West was much less, and here 12,000 copies are still taken. We do not think that the loss can be attributed mainly to the absence of effort on the part of the ministers. Many were induced to take it at first who could not be persuaded to continue it. The facts may as well be plainly stated. While it is filled with matter that is useful and interesting, comparing favorable in this respect with other Magazines of the day, there does not appear to be a large demand for it. It would seem that there is ample field for the Golden Hours; and yet this, so far has not been a financial success. Perhaps we have not sufficiently urged upon parents the importance of supplying their children with wholesome reading, and creating in them a taste which is to be thus gratified. Parents, before their children can read, should read to them, till there is formed in them an anxiety to know the contents of the little book. There are few more effective safeguards that can be formed around the feet of youth than a passion for useful and wholesome reading. Perhaps we have not done all we should to introduce among our people the books published by our book concerns. We may benefit the people, as well as the publishing interests of the Church, by giving more attention to duty. If we do not wish to keep the books for sale, as was formerly done, we can tell the people of certain ones, commend them, and offer to get them for them. We think the plan adopted by the publishers of offering the Northwestern at one price with premium, and at another price without premium, is wise; and at two dollars and twenty cents without premium many more ought to be induced to take it. Our Sunday School periodicals are all that we could desire and expect. As the Sunday School Advocate is now issued semi-monthly at the same price of others that are issued only monthly, it may hope to regain the position it once occupied as the most widely circulated paper of its kind in the world. In addition to this we heartily recommend the Sunday Guest, a Sunday School paper published by Arnold & Willoughby, and edited by Bro. J. B. Atchinson. It is well worthy of the patronage of our people.

B. S. TAYLOR, Chairman.

PARSONAGES.

As near as your committee can ascertain, there are about one-third of the pastoral charges in this Conference which have no "certain abiding-place" for their minister and his family. If, after the Conference time is past, and after a deal of trouble and delay, the minister succeeds in finding a comfortable domicile in which to gather his scattered loved ones, well; if not, and the chances are against him, he is compelled to take up with some building which has been passed by as unsuitable for the residence of any other family, where, it may be, parlor, sitting room, dining-room, and study, and, possibly, kitchen and sleeping apartments, as well, and all condensed into one small room. As a consequence, very likely, the minister gets the reputation of being unstudious, and his wife of being a poor house-keeper, and both, of being uncourteous and inhospitable. They have all the necessary qualifications for successful work in our ministry, if only they could have a fair chance; but what wonder, if, under these unfavorable and embarrassing circumstances, they utterly fail to accomplish the good that they might otherwise accomplish. The financial loss to our minister, in thus being compelled to pay heavy rentals for their house, is very great, and, as we believe, largely unnecessary; but, immeasurably greater, and, much more to be regretted, is the loss of power and efficiency in the work of the Christian ministry, which inevitably results from being compelled, as is often the case, to live in a house every way unsuitable for the abode of a minister and his family. Therefore

Resolved, 1st. That every preacher who finds himself in charge of a Circuit or Station where there is no Parsonage, should at once take steps toward the purchase or building of a comfortable house to be used as a Parsonage. 2d. That every Presiding Elder should give this subject special attention in the Quarterly Conferences and elsewhere, and thus bring his influence to bear to induce our people everywhere, to provide comfortable, and furnished homes for our preachers,

JAMES E. WITHEY, Committee.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

That the times demand an Educated Ministry has passed beyond the point of controversy, and the only question that can arise is as to the value of professional schools in which to obtain the requisite qualifications for the ministerial life work. If a young man has but three or four years that he can devote to study, we believe the primary or college course is the best for him. This we think no one can doubt who has any knowledge of the laws of mind or the value of first principles, but for those who have time and means to go beyond the college course or for the few who may possibly be called to the Ministry, in middle life and have not time to acquire a knowledge of first principles and with whom mental discipline is not a prime factor, these theological schools are of great value and should be commended to all our young men. We believe the time has fully come, when no Presiding Elder should present the recommendation of any man to this Conference who has not received a good education. We have schools, colleges and institutes in an abundance so that every one who thinks that he is called of God to preach the Gospel, should be urged to avail himself of the advantages which these schools afford. And as biblical schools are established specifically for the Ministry, and the Church reaps all the benefits of such education, she ought to give them her hearty support and provide them with ample endowments. The Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, as we all know was munificently endowed by its founders. But that endowment has been largely swept away by the devouring flames, and now she appeals to the Church for success and aid and most assuredly the Church ought to respond cheerfully and generously. Something has been done during the past year but the work is not complete and the Institute must still appeal to the Church for financial support. The Institute as far as we are able to learn, is in a flourishing condition, aside from her financial embarrassments. We have been especially happy to learn that the Rev. W. X. Ninde, D.D. an honored member of this Conference has been elected to the Presidency of the Institution, and we can but congratulate the trustees in securing a man so well qualified to fill the responsible position, and we trust and hope the school will enjoy increasing prosperity and usefulness under his judicious management, and we pledge ourselves anew to its support and bid it God Speed.

Resolved, 1. That we will take collection during the Conference year in all our charges for the support of Garrett Biblical Institute so far as practicable.

Resolved, 2. That a committee of three, consisting of W. X. Ninde, W. W. Washburn, R. S. Pardington, be appointed a committee to take into consideration the feasibility of holding a Pastors' Institute during the session of our next annual Conference. We also nominate as visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute, L. P. Davis, A. F. Bourns.

VISITORS TO ALBION COLLEGE.

The different members visited the College during the closing examinations occurring in June last, and are pleased to testify to the evidences of faithful, efficient work on the part, both of instructors and students. On the part of the Faculty, there was evidence of scholarly thoroughness, and the students evinced ability, application and proficiency, equal to the average classes of collegiate institutions. The exercises of Commencement Day were worthy of special mention; the part taken by each graduate being performed with that dignity and ease which are the result of thoughtful preparation. The Faculty, without exception, seem to be doing faithful work, and are possessed of that enthusiasm which is essential to the highest success. The members who have been added during the past year have entered earnestly into their labors. It is a matter of regret that some of the professors have been overtaxed with the number of different recitations which the lack of instructors has imposed upon them. Provision has been made to relieve, in part this difficulty for the coming year. Much regret was expressed by the friends of the College on the resignation of Prof. Lewis F. Stearns of the Chair of History and Belles-lettres; but while we believe the school has thus lost a most valuable member from its faculty, we congratulate the institution on the appointment, to fill said vacancy of Mr. F. M. Taylor, son of Rev. B. S. Taylor, of this Conference, and a graduate of the Northwestern University. Prof. Taylor's record as a student is of a high order, and we feel assured that his appointment to this important position will prove an act of wisdom on the part of the appointing power. The facilities for instruction in the natural sciences which heretofore were meager and insufficient have been greatly augmented by collections made the past summer in South America by Prof. Fall. Decided progress has been made in the Dep't of Art the past year. The increase in interest and numbers has been of financial aid to the College. This department promises to become a leading element in popularizing the institution. The library has been very materially enlarged and improved through the persistent efforts of Pres. Fiske. The literary societies have maintained a healthful growth and continue a very inviting feature of the College. Religious culture as heretofore has been a prominent factor in the aim and effort of the Faculty. A successful revival effort in connection with the M. E. Church the past winter, led many of the students to a knowledge and profession of Christ. This feature not only commends the College to parents, as a safe place for their sons and daughters, but likewise assures better and larger intellectual attainments. Altogether Albion College with her enterprising and efficient new president has had a prosperous year, and promises still better things. There has been an increase in the number of students in each of the departments. The courses of the study in the curriculum have been greatly improved by the new administration. If the Church does its duty, we believe the success of the College is assured; but if in the future Methodists, and especially Methodist Ministers shall continue to patronize other schools rather than our own, Albion College, will come short of deserved prosperity. Suffer the committee in conclusion to commend most heartily this College of the Church in Michigan, to the confidence support, and patronage of all its members and friends.

L. P. DAVIS, Ch'n.

DETROIT CONFERENCE.

(As modified at adjournment, September 16, 1879.)

NOTE.—At great pains and labor, the Secretary has repeatedly re-written this Register to make it accurate and strictly alphabetical.

Will all members help to fill all blanks and correct all errors? If any names are mis-spelled send me a note.

“Div.,” in the Seventh column, indicates the fact that such members fell into the Detroit Conference by the division of 1856.

All who joined the Detroit Conference in full connection had at least two years of prior service as preachers on probation. Those who joined other Conferences may have done very many years of service before coming here.

The sixth column shows time of admission to full membership, not of reception on trial. Give your name in full.

SEE FOURTH PAGE OF THIS PAMPHLET AND COMPLY WITH REQUESTS THEREON!!!!!!
